Officers responded to 202 N Tamiami Trail (Embassy Suites) on 2/11/23 in reference to a felony battery. Officers contacted the victim, [REDACTED] who advised she was struck in the face by a subject, Keith Gray. [REDACTED] advised she was attempting to retrieve her cell phone from Gray's vehicle, that was parked inside the garage at the location. [REDACTED] stated that Gray was refusing to allow her access to his vehicle to retrieve her phone. [REDACTED] advised her husband, Michael Callahan, entered into an altercation with Gray. [REDACTED] stated that Callahan was only attempting to "control" Gray, and that Gray placed Callahan in a headlock. [REDACTED] advised that she attempted to break Gray and Callahan apart, and was eventually successful. [REDACTED] stated that Callahan was able to retrieve [REDACTED] phone from Gray's vehicle. [REDACTED] advised that after she got her phone back, [REDACTED] and Callahan separated from Gray. [REDACTED] stated that Gray then approached her, and without being provoked, struck her in the face. [REDACTED] advised the strike briefly knocked her unconscious and she fell the the ground. [REDACTED] stated as a result of the strike from Gray, her front tooth was chipped in half. [REDACTED] advised she wished to pursue charges against Gray.

[REDACTED] husband, Michael Callahan, advised that he was at the location with [REDACTED] and her friends. Callahan stated that [REDACTED] advised she could not locate her phone, and when they used GPS to locate it, it showed that it was in Gray's vehicle. Callahan advised he asked Gray to let him retrieve [REDACTED] phone, and he refused. Callahan stated they entered into a physical altercation, in which Callahan managed to retrieve Gray's keys. Callahan advised he retrieved [REDACTED] phone from the vehicle, and was attempting to depart from Gray. Callahan stated Gray then struck [REDACTED] in the face.

Gray's girlfriend, Blake Vallaire, stated she was at the location with the above mentioned parties. Vallaire advised they were going to depart from the location, when she was informed by [REDACTED] that she could not find her phone. Vallaire "pinged" [REDACTED] phone, and determined that it was inside Gray's vehicle. Vallaire stated Callahan confronted Gray, requesting that Gray allow him to retrieve [REDACTED] phone. Vallaire advised a verbal altercation ensued between Callahan and Gray, and it eventually escalated into a physical altercation. Vallaire stated herself and [REDACTED] managed to break Callahan and Gray apart. Vallaire advised Callahan and Gray were separated, and [REDACTED] began verbally arguing with Gray. Vallaire advised Gray then struck [REDACTED] in the face.

SCFD responded and treated [REDACTED] for her injuries. Officers observed bruising to [REDACTED] nose, as well as a chipped front tooth. [REDACTED] was given a victim right's packet with Marsy's Law insert.

Officers observed Gray walking northbound on the sidewalk near the location. Officer Kenniston contacted Gray, and placed him into handcuffs. Gray was read his Miranda Rights, and agreed to speak with officers. In reference to this incident, Gray stated [REDACTED]

Officers spoke with the employees of the location, who advised that there are security cameras inside the garage, however they are unable to access them at this time. Follow up to be conducted.

Gray had minor bruising above his right eye, and a cut on his nose, presumably from his altercation with Callahan. Gray insisted that it was due to an unknown subject attacking him from behind. Pictures uploaded via Axon Capture.

Probable cause exists for the violation of F.S.S. 784.041(1)(a) Felony Battery by Keith Gray because Gray actually and intentionally struck [REDACTED] against her will, and Gray caused [REDACTED] permanent disfigurement (broken tooth). Gray was placed under arrest and transported to SSO jail without incident.
